4 Simple Things YOU Can Do to Protect Your Lake.

1. Use Phosphorus Free Fertilizer
Most turf grass does NOT need more phosphorus. Grass needs mostly nitrogen for green growth. The 2nd number on a fertilizer bag shows the % P...it should be "0". P-free fertilizer is widely available...or you can ask for it at your local garden center.
2. Do NOT apply fertilizer down to the water's edge. Leave at least a 10-foot wide unfertilized strip – any closer and you may as well fertilize the lake! Fertilizer will migrate to make this unfertilized strip green.
3. Don't blow grass clippings or rake leaves into the lake. Grass and leaves contain nitrogen and phosphorus - - nutrients that stimulate algae growth. Grass clippings and leaves consume oxygen from the water as they decompose. Grass clippings and leaves build up organic muck on the lake bottom. Leaves and grass clippings also clog the dam gate which needs to be cleaned on a regular basis.

4. Plant Only NATIVE Plants in Your Lakeshore Property. Many non-natives, while attractive, can be invasive. Invasive, non-native plants can crowd out beneficial native plants. Non-native plants don't provide necessary habitat for native animals and birds. Control of non-native species is one of the most serious problems in lakes and streams.

Fresh Produce Available

Each summer, teens from low-income communities work at the Green Youth Farm in Lake County to grow produce while gaining paid work experience, entrepreneurial skills and exposure to healthy foods and cooking. This program is a partnership between the Lake County Forest Preserves, the Preservation Foundation and the Chicago Botanic Garden.

Fresh produce is available for purchase at a weekly farm stand:

Wednesdays, 9 am–1 pm, from July 11–October 17

The farm stand is located in the parking lot of the Greenbelt Cultural Center, at 1215 N. Green Bay Road, North Chicago.

GREEN YOUTH FARM:

On a 1.25-acre farm nestled within Greenbelt Forest Preserve in North Chicago, the Green Youth Farm in Lake County is providing high school students with a paid work experience, entrepreneurial and job skills training, guidance by adult mentors, and exposure to healthy foods and cooking, while providing the local food desert community with organically grown produce for free or at a reduced-cost.

The Preservation Foundation partners with the Lake County Forest Preserves and the Chicago Botanic Garden to make this exemplary program possible.

Each summer, 20 students are hired to plan, sow, tend and harvest a 1.25-acre sustainable farm. Participants learn to enjoy and prepare new foods, market their produce at area farmers markets, and provide affordable produce to Lake County's food-insecure residents through weekly farm stands and demonstrations at local Women and Infant Children (WIC) centers. Since the program began in 2003, the Green Youth Farm in Lake County has:

- Employed and mentored nearly 600 students from diverse backgrounds.
- Sold or donated more than 87,000 pounds of produce.
- Conducted food preparation demonstrations at WIC centers, providing 5,098 produce servings to parents and children in 2015 alone.

The Green Youth Farm in Lake County—made possible thanks to donors from across the region—has grown into the model for youth development programs throughout Chicago. Join us as we further the Forest Preserves' mission to provide interactive education for generations to come.
